Sioux Cityan Killed in Fall from Horse

Mrs. John Peterson, 32, 5511 Bushnell St., died Wednesday night in a Billings, Mont., hospital after suffering head injuries in a fall from a horse. She and her husband were vacationing in Montana at the time of the mishap.

Funeral services will be at 2 p.m. Monday in the Ponca, Neb., Presbyterian Church with the Rev. Thomas O. Johnson of Ponca, and the Rev. Myron Brower of Sioux City officiating. Burial will be in the Ponca Cemetery under direction of the Mohr Funeral Home of Ponca.

Mrs. Peterson, the former Mary Putnam, was born Jan. 25, 1934, at Ponca and was married there June 7, 1963. The couple moved to Sioux City about 18 months ago.

She was a member of the Presbyterian Church in Ponca, active in church organizations, was a past worthy matron of Order of Eastern Star there, Chapter 168, a member of PEO Chapter CG and was a former fourth grade teacher in Ponca.

Surviving are the widower; a son, David John; a daughter, Jan Marie; her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Darrel Putnam of Ponca; two sisters, Mrs. Lonny Book of South Sioux City and Mrs. Eugene Philiph of Sibley, Iowa; two brothers, Tom Putnam of Hettinger, N.D., and Jon Putnam of Algona, Iowa, and a grandmother, Mrs. Gene Fields, Ponca.

Mrs. John Peterson

PROPHECY

The date is May 1, 1966, and it is a beautiful day. We find ourselves roaring down Ponca's six-lane highway in the latest style saucermobile. Suddenly an old, infirm, man comes into view. Peering closer we recognize this aged individual as our one-time Superintendent and class sponsor, Gerry Ellyson. We stop for a chat and Mr. Ellyson is full of the latest news of our class of '51.

Lowell Cooper and his co-pilot B. J. Gibbs just broke the round-the-block speed record in their hot-rod. It wasn't a fairly won record though, as B. J. had to push it part of the way!

Virginia Riffey has just had her first book published. The name of it is WHY I AM LOUD AND BOISTEROUS!

Royce Polkinghorn is now the president of the American Society for the Prevention of Work!

Jean Rockwell is a torch-singer. Her theme song is "If You Knew Gertie Like I Know Gertie!"

Senator Happy Backman is introducing a bill in the State Legislature to reinstate the Prohibition Law.

Marcia Putnam is a daring test pilot for the new Mercury Saucermobile for Peterson Motors.

Louis Adams is still trying to get the class of '51 to pay their class dues so we weren't able to pay him a visit!

Darrell McCuen has joined the Foreign Legion. Boy, talk about a woman being the destruction of a man!

Ruby Curry is a missionary to South Africa. She's had some pretty narrow escapes with head-hunters!

Gary Iverson is standing on a soap box in Central Park suporting a non-existent party by the name of Republican. He's getting the money to do this from the eccentric millionaire Ruth Stroup!

Joe MCardle and his cute little blonde wife have gone into the laundry business. They thought they might as well start a laundry as they have so many three-cornered dish-towels of their own!

Nadine Harder is just announcing her 20th engagement.

Paul Bird has made a fortune on door mats. They have the words "Home Tweet Home" printed on them!

Betty Ann Enders just won a beauty contest and is known as The Beautiful Blonde With The Backward Father!

Jerry Beck is modeling ladies bathing suits for the Stylish Stouts Corporation! This seems appropriate as Jerry was our favorite model of feminine apparel back in Ponca High.

Bob Rahn is refereeing for lady wrestlers over TV everyday.

Patricia Putman has fulfilled her life's desire—running an old maid's home for bachelors!

Bill Anderson is the mayor of Martinsburg and is coaching the Martinsburg High School football team. They just defeated Wakefield 70-0!

Dorothy Severance is just beginning to recuperate from a very serious nervous breakdown that she suffered while getting annual ads ready back in '51!

Jim Lowe and Willis Stading are among the ten best-dressed men of the year and are considered the most eligible bachelors of all time!

After eating a very delicious lunch at Esther Kuehler's drive-in on the outskirts of Ponca, we bid Mr. Ellyson good-by and re-enter our flying saucermobile.

My, but it's been a busy day and it's about time we left this land of the future and come down to earth. This prophecy may have been a bit far-fetched, but we know that our class is in for a very successful future.

Farewell, Ponca High School. Hello, Tomorrow!
